Re: New Testing and Re-certification Procedures

We appreciate your assistance as a speech arts judge and hope you will continue to be involved by re-certifying this year. The procedure for re-certification has changed - again. We are piloting on-line, statewide rules clinics this year. Our hope is that it will make it much easier for our speech arts coaches and judges to get certified.

Speech Arts Judges' Certification

1. Age: All speech arts judges shall have been graduated from high school for at least twenty months.
2. Certification: Judges shall:
 - a. Fill out a registration form.
 - b. Participate in the online, statewide certification clinic (see next page for details).
 - c. Pay a required fee ($7.50) to the Idaho High School Activities Assn. Head coaches do not need to pay.
 - d. Score 80% on a written test every year.

At the conclusion of the online clinic, you will receive a password that will allow you to access the test on the IHSAA website (www.idhsaa.org). You will need to complete the test on the scantron provided and send it to your clinician along with your registration form and payment (head coaches do not need to pay). Clinicians will then gather all materials from their districts and send it in to the IHSAA no later than two weeks prior to state tournament.

Incomplete materials will not be processed. No materials will be accepted after the deadline (two weeks prior to the state tournament). NON-CERTIFIED JUDGES WILL NOT BE PAID BY THE IHSAA AT STATE TOURNAMENTS.

If you have questions or concerns, please contact the IHSAA, your area clinician or your local school coach.

Thank you again for your support of speech arts in Idaho.
