

2009 ISATA CONFERENCE

Please join us for this year's ISATA conference,
Thursday and Friday, Oct. 1st & 2nd 2009
In Beautiful Ketchum Idaho
The Idaho Speech Teachers Association is honored to bring to you a number of professional presenters and educational workshops.

*We are proud to present
Mr. R.L. Rowsey
As our keynote speaker*

Don't miss this great opportunity - Register for the conference today!

WORKSHOPS & SPEAKERS

Make-up for Aging & Special Effects
Helpful instruction on challenging student make-up
Jeff & Gaye Young

Debate and Critical Thinking
A study using the Ennis-Weir Critical Thinking Essay Test
By Richard Zuercher

*Funding Your Projects and Programs
With Grants and Gifts*
Informative advice about the funding challenges teacher face.
Tom Bicak

AND MUCH, MUCH MORE!!!

Keynote Speaker R.L. Rowsey

R.L. Rowsey (Core Company Artist) has spent the last 30 years as both an artist and an advocate for the support of local arts organizations. R.L. has also served as musical director and conductor for many national tours, including productions of Fiddler on the Roof, Singing in the Rain, and Kiss of the Spiderwoman. He also directed several productions in the Richmond and Washington, DC areas, including Oil City Symphony at The Studio Theatre in DC and Always...Patsy Cline and The Gifts of the Magi at Theatre Virginia, in Richmond. In addition to his extensive work as a vocal coach, R.L. also held teaching positions with The Studio Conservatory of DC, The Kennedy Center's Theatre for Young People, and The Columbia School of Theatrical Arts in Columbia, Maryland. He served as the associate producing artistic director at Theatre Virginia. During his tenure, he created several new programs for the Education and Outreach Department, helping to integrate music and theatre into the mainstream curriculum of Virginia's public schools. He has toured the country as the company manager for national tours of Gypsy and State Fair starring John Davidson. For three years, R.L. served as General Manager for NETworks, one of the nation's leading producers of national tours. Since moving to Idaho, R.L. has become an integral member of the local community. He is the musical director for Light on the Mountains Spiritual Center, is a member of Hailey Rotary, served as Vice President of the Hailey Chamber of Commerce, and is currently the Artistic Director for the Sun Valley Summer Symphony School of Music. In 2005, R.L. was recognized as the Sun Valley/ Ketchum Chamber of Commerce's Arts Advocate of the Year, and in 2008 he was the recipient of both the Safeco Foundation's Community Hero Award and the Ann and Doug Christensen Humanitarian Award.

ISATA FALL CONFERENCE

2009-2010
ISATA
Membership
(First Year Teachers Free)
$25.00

ISATA
FALL CONFERENCE
SUN VALLEY, ID
10/1 – 10/2
$35.00

Invoice can be found online
www.idhsaa.org

TO RESERVE A ROOM AT THE SUN VALLEY RESORT
Call Hotel Reservations at 800-786-8259, 208-622-2151,
or email reservations@sunvalley.com.
Conference Rates Available under
IDAHO SPEECH ARTS.

ISATA President
Cherie Clawson

IHSAA Assistant Director
Julie Hammons

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

Wednesday – Sept. 31st - Executive Board Meeting

Thursday – October 1st

- 8:00 a.m. Registration – Hemmingway Elementary School, Ketchum, ID.
8:30 a.m. Welcome – ISATA President Cherie Clawson & IHSAA Asst. Director Julie Hammons
8:45 a.m. Keynote Speaker – Core Company Artist of Company of Fools – R.L Rowsey
9:45 a.m. Break
10:00 a.m. Public Service Announcement – Tabitha Miller
12:00 p.m. Lunch, Nominations for Awards
1:00 p.m. How to integrate “Mock Trial” Into Your Curriculum - Bob Pangburn
2:00 p.m. New Ideas and Resources for Your Classroom – Melinda Schulz
Break 3:00 – 3:15 Break-Out Groups
Drama
3:15 p.m. Make-up for Aging and Special Effect Stage Make-Up -Jeff and Gaye Young
4:15 p.m. Costuming Your High School Production - Tracey Calascione
Speech / Debate
3:15 p.m. Debate and Critical Thinking: A Study Using the Ennis-Weir
Critical Thinking Essay Test - Richard Zuercher
4:15 p.m. Lesson Sharing

5:30p.m. Dinner

Friday Oct. 2nd

- 8:00 a.m. Continental Breakfast
8:00 a.m. Clinicians Meeting with Julie Hammons
8:30 a.m. – Making Changes and Other Important Information – Julie Hammons 9:00 a.m. "How to Incorporate Film and Video into Your Communication Arts Curriculum". - Frank Beal
10:00 a.m. – Funding your Projects and Programs with Grants and Gifts – Tom Bicak
11:00 a.m. – Drama and Debate Caucuses and Certification;
Speech – Lesson Sharing
12:00 Lunch
1:00 p.m. - Speech Caucus & Certification;
Drama and Debate Lesson Sharing
1:30 How to Make Your Dollar Stretch and Other Trade Secrets – Glynis Calhoun
2:00 Lesson Sharing
2:30 Business Meeting