

Billy Emerson – 1999 Hall of Fame Inductee

Billy Emerson made a significant impact on Idaho students' lives as a teacher, coach, and administrator for more than 30 years. He coached football, basketball, and track throughout the southeastern part of the state from 1952-1975. Billy retired in 1987 after serving twelve years as principal of Jerome High School.

Billy's career accomplishments and highlights include: coaching the 1968 State Basketball Champion Pocatello Indians; SIC Coach of the Year in 1967; President of the Idaho Coaches Association for five years; and coaching many conference and district championships in football, basketball, and track.