

Bob Fuller – 1992 Hall of Fame Inductee

Bob Fuller's reputation as an official was synonymous with girls and boys high school basketball having officiated 4,370 games. His career as a basketball official spanned 43 years before his retirement in 1990. Fuller worked 52 state basketball championships and 52 district basketball tournaments. He also officiated baseball at the high school, college, and professional levels for 16 years.

Fuller's illustrious career in sports includes service as a commissioner in football and basketball, conducting clinics and introducing new rule interpretations. He served as a City Councilman for 20 years in Nampa including two terms as Council President.