

Bob Matthews – 1990 Hall of Fame Inductee

Bob Matthews graduated from Oakley High School where he had a great career in track and football. He set an all-time record in the shotput throwing 45 feet, 7 inches. He went on to have an outstanding career playing fullback for Utah State.

His professional life has revolved around athletics. He was a teacher in the Oakley, Burley, and Jerome school districts for thirty-three years. He also officiated football and basketball for more than 30 years. Matthews was honored with the IHSAA Fourth District Distinguished Service Award in 1986. He was also recognized with a service award from the Idaho State Coaches Association.