

Byron Toone – 1995 Hall of Fame Inductee

Byron Toone started the sports of wrestling, girls' track, girls' volleyball, and girls' basketball at Pocatello High School. While he was coaching, his teams won the state track championship and the state basketball title. In 1974, Toone developed the "Manual for Athletics", dealing with the organization of all phases of athletics, which was adopted by School District #25 and used by schools in Idaho, Oregon, Washington, Montana, and Wyoming. Toone also officiated basketball and football and was the IHSAA basketball commissioner in the Pocatello area from 1974 to 1991.
