

Charlie Alvaro – 2004 Hall of Fame Inductee

Remembered as a great coach, mentor, role model, and friend, Charlie Alvaro spent his entire career in the Caldwell School District where, in 1960, he began teaching and coaching at the elementary and junior high level. In 1964, Charlie transferred to Caldwell High School and spend twenty-three years teaching and coaching before his death September 17, 1986.

Charlie's baseball teams compiled a 450-195 record and appeared in seven state tournaments, winning the A-1 championship in 1983. His football teams won the Cross State League championship four times and enjoyed a perfect 10-0 season in 1978. Charlie directed numerous district and state high school baseball tournaments and also officiated girls' basketball.
