

Ellis Williams – 1990 Hall of Fame Inductee

Ellis Williams' career in education was spent entirely in the State of Idaho, beginning at Thomas High School in 1944 as a teacher and coached. During his tenure in education he was a teacher, coach, and superintendent of schools. Williams retired in 1980 from Soda Springs School District after serving as superintendent of schools for twenty years.

Ellis was always a strong supporter of youth programs whether education or activity oriented. His high school coaching record boasts several championships in the sports of basketball, football, and track. Williams served on the IHSAA Board of Control for 9 years.
