

Marquis Ross – 2001 Hall of Fame Inductee

Marquis Ross spent most of his 34-year career working to increase opportunities for Idaho student-athletes and Idaho athletic administrators. He was instrumental in the development of the Idaho Athletic Administrators Association and implemented the NIAAA Leadership Training program at the state level. Mark was the recipient of many awards at both the state and national level and was elected to the National Athletic Administrators' Board of Directors in 1999.
