

Onan Mecham – 1981 Hall of Fame Inductee

Onan Mecham graduated from the LDS High School in Salt Lake City in 1929. He served the state of Idaho for 35 years as coach, principal, and superintendent. In the course of his duties he so positively affected his students that on five occasions the yearbook was dedicated in his behalf. Onan was a vital part of the educational program in the communities of Inkom, Weston, Grantsville (Utah), Bancroft, St. Anthony, Terreton, Sugar City, and Preston.
