

Rex Engelking – 1988 Hall of Fame Inductee

Rex Engelking served as the superintendent of schools in Parma, Buhl, and Nampa, spending 10 years at each school district. His early years in education included teaching and coaching all sports.

Engelking was an involved citizen serving educational and community activities. He represented Idaho for 28 years as a member of the Northwest Accreditation Commission for Secondary and Higher Education, was President and Executive Secretary of Idaho School Administrators Association, and was President of the Snake River Valley School Masters Association and the 4th District Superintendents Association.