

Tim Dunne – 2009 Hall of Fame Inductee

Tim Dunne began teaching and coaching in 1974 at Jerome High School where, for thirty-four years, he served as head cross country and track coach until retiring in 2004. Under Tim's guidance, Jerome athletes achieved great success. They individually and collectively won numerous local, district, and state titles, including 14 boys state track team championships and 13 boys state cross country team championships, one with a perfect score of 15.

Tim's exceptional coaching skill and lifelong dedication to track and cross country have been recognized by his peers. He was named the District IV track and cross country Coach of the Year over thirty times, was inducted into the Idaho State University Hall of Fame in 1980, and received the 1984 Runner's World Magazine All-Star coach award. In 1999 Tim was selected to the Idaho Track and Field Hall of Fame and named "Coach of the Century".
